DAILY THOUGHT.

Certainly, in our little sphere, it is not the most active people to whom we owe the most. It is the lives like the stars, which simply pour down on us the calm light of their bright and faithful being, up to which we look, and out of which we gather the deepest calm and courage.—Phillips Brooks.

Just One Application and the Hairs Vanish

(Toilet Talks)
Any woman can keep her skin free from unsightly hair or fuzz if she will follow these simple instructions: When hairy growths appear, apply a simple paste, made by mixing some water with powdered delatone. Apply this to hairy surface and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This is a harmless treatment, but be sure you get the real delatone.

ARMANTROUT STUDIO

IN SUCH PAIN WOMAN CRIED

Suffered Everything Until Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Florence, So. Dakota. "I used to be very sick every month with bearing down pains and backache, and had headache a good deal of the time and very little appetite. The pains were so bad that I used to sit right down on the floor and cry, because it hurt me so and I could not do any work at those times. An old woman advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I got a bottle. I felt better the next month so I took three more bottles of it and got well so I could work all the time. I hope every woman who suffers like I did will try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. P. W. LANSING, Box 8, Allen, Wash.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Thanksgiving Day. At two o'clock a five-course dinner was served to Messrs. Dan, Al and Ollie Williams, March Woods, Harry O. Matchett, Wayne Glover, Edwin Olsmith, Bruce Stiles, George Doughty and Fred Soehl.

The Eastern Star is entertaining for the Masons at the Temple tonight. There will be a program and refreshments.

Every club woman is asked to attend the meeting of the general federation of women's clubs at the library Saturday afternoon at three o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Olsen had as their guests at dinner yesterday, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Burford and family of Lindsay, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Chestnut, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Gillette, and Mr. J. P. Burford. Fall flowers and foliage made an appropriate setting for the Thanksgiving turkey which was served at noon.

Dr. and Mrs. A. A. West had as their dinner guests yesterday, Mrs. C. M. Compton and Mr. John Dettimore of Denver, Colo., and Mr. and Mrs. Marley F. Smith.

And Then the Audience Laughed.

When Miss Agnes Scott Longan gave "A Winter's Day," a composition of her accompanist, Ilgen Fritz, and fervently sang "Freeze, Freeze," her audience made no attempt to restrain their audible laughter, and she herself found it difficult to finish her song. Despite the zero-like temperature of the Guthrie theater last evening, the audience was not cold, for although the artists were scarcely up to the expectations and press notices, they were warmly applauded and given their due mode of appreciation.

Miss Longan opened her program with a group of Brahms numbers, "Wie Melodien Zeigt Es Mir," "Nachtigall," "Meine Liebe Ist Grün," the latter of which particularly displayed her powers; there was much of musical intelligence in her rendition and the upper register of her voice appeared to some advantage. In the second group, "Jesu," by Spruce, received probably the most sympathetic interpretation and "The Fairy Pipes," by Brover, a dainty and charming bit among the lighter songs was much appreciated. As an encore to this group she sang Nettil's "The Rosary."

Mr. Fritz played three numbers and a fourth, as encore, was a hesitation waltz from his own compositions. As a composer he ranks higher than as a performer. His technique was adequate in his playing of the "Papillon d'Amour" of Schmitt, but his interpretation was marred by—well, perhaps by nervous temperament. There is nothing of nervous manner in his playing, however; in fact, his singular ease of manner is one of his most pleasant and commendable features. Much can be excused in a pianist so entirely devoid of mannerism. His "Scherzo" from his own pen, a left hand number was enjoyed and so was the "Waltz" by Tchaikowsky. The latter required some skill by its technical intricacies and he was not found wanting. Four French songs and "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" (Continued on Page Six.)

THE HOUSE.

KEEPER'S PROBLEM

THE FACTS OF THE CASE

The tendency of the times is for young women to prefer work in office or factory rather than doing housework. Yet the work in the office or factory is usually more nerve-racking because it is a constant repetition of work at high speed—a tension which racks brain and body and from which there is no relaxation. On the other hand the housekeeper, if she be a mother of a large family, is weighted down with worries and cares—her housework is beyond her strength; perhaps, if she studies her work, puts her housework on a business basis and manages well, she can easily take twenty minutes or half an hour in the middle of the day to completely relax.

When a girl becomes a woman, when a woman becomes a mother, when women pass through the changes of middle life, are the three periods of life when health and strength are most needed to withstand the pain and distress often caused by severe organic disturbances.

At these critical times women are best fortified by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, an old remedy of proved worth that keeps the entire female system perfectly regulated and in excellent condition. Mothers, if your daughters are weak, lack ambition, are troubled with headaches, lassitude, and are pale and sickly, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is just what they need to surely bring the bloom of health to their cheeks and make them strong and healthy.

If you want a specialist in women's diseases to diagnose your case, consult Dr. Pierce by letter, correspondence, private and confidential, address: Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.
